God Moves in a Mysterious Way

UNION (C.M.)
Alexander Gillet, Harmonia Sacra, 1867

William Cowper, 1774

1. God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform; He plants His footsteps in the sea And rides upon the storm.
2. Deep in unfathomable mines Of never failing skill He treasurizes up His bright designs And works His sovereign will.
3. Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take; The clouds ye so much dread Are big with mercy And shall break In blessings on your head.
4. Judge not the Lord by feeble sense, But providence He bides a smiling face. And sweet will be the flower.
5. His purposes will ripen fast, Un - trust Him for His grace; Behind a frowning in every hour; The bud may have a pretender taste, But sweet will be the flower.
6. Blind unbelief is sure to err And in vain; God is His own in - terpreter, And He will make it plain.
