

Through Every Age, Eternal God

from Psalm 90

AMANDA (L.M.)
Justin Morgan, 1790

Isaac Watts, 1719

1. Through ev - 'ry age, e - ter - nal God,
2. Long hadst Thou reigned ere time be - gan,
3. But man, weak man, is born to die,
4. Death, like an o - ver - flow - ing stream,
5. Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man;

Melody

Thou art our rest, our safe a - bode;
Or dust was fash - ioned in - to man;
Made up of guilt and van - i - ty:
Sweeps us a - way; our life's a dream -
And kind - ly length - en out the span,

High was Thy throne, e'er heav'n was made,
And long Thy king - dom shall en - dure,
Thy dread - ful sen - tence, Lord, was just -
An emp - ty tale - a morn - ing flow'r,
Till, cleansed by grace, we all may be

Or earth Thy hum - ble foot - stool laid.
When earth and time shall be no more.
"Re - turn, ye sin - ners, to your dust."
Cut down and with - er'd in an hour!
Pre - pared to die, and dwell with Thee.
