1. My Sav - ior God is all my light, Whom shall I fear be - side Him?
2. Though ar - mies camp a - round me here My heart shall nev - er trem - ble.
3. In times of trou - ble I will seek To hide in His pa - vil - ion.
4. O LORD my God, please hear with grace, Please hear my fer - vent cry - ing.
5. My fa - ther and my moth - er flee, Yet still the LORD will save me.

My God is strength, and life and sight, I can - not fear be - side Him.
Though wars a - rise, I will not fear, His grac - es I as - sem - ble.
He sets me on a moun - tain peak, My God pro - tects His chil - dren.
Your Word has said to seek Your face, You save my soul from dy - ing.
Teach me, O God, that I may see The path of life You gave me.

And when my foes Would eat my flesh, In pride those foes have stum - bled.
I seek one thing, The house of God, That I may see His beau - ty.
And so my head Is lift - ed up, My en - e - mies will suf - fer.
Turn not Your face A - way from me, Nor turn a - way in an - ger.
With cru - el breath My foes a - rise, Full ha - tred they en - cour - age.

Their ha - tred grows, Their traps are mesh, But head - long they have tum - bled.
And I will sing My praise to God, With ho - li - ness my du - ty.
With joy my bread, With praise my cup, My wor - ship I will of - fer.
Ex - tend Your grace So I might see; And save me from all dan - ger.
Spare me from death, And from their lies, Wait on the LORD with cour - age.
