1. To Thee, O LORD Who dwell - est in the height, My eyes
2. O LORD, our God, grant us Thy grace a - gain, Grant us look up for light. Lo, as the eyes of ser - vants, when ne - glect - ed, Thy grace a - gain, For, lo, our ears are full of man's de - ri - sion

Are to their lord di - rect - ed, And as a maid - en's glance for At our es - tranged con - di - tion; Our soul is sat - ed with the fa - vor lin - gers Up - on her mis - tress' fin - gers, Thus, too, our scorn and chid - ing Of those at ease a - bid - ing, And of the eyes look to our Mas - ter's face Till He pro - vide us grace.

proud who in their van - i - ty Re - gard us haugh - ti - ly.
