

Do Not Forsake Your Servant Now

From Psalm 119:1-8

1. All the un - de - filed are great - ly blest Who walk with - in the law.
2. These are those who do no e - vil deeds, They walk with - in His ways

8 All who keep His tes - ti - mo - nies sure Are blest with God's most gra - cious hand,
As our God com - mand - ed us to live, To keep His statutes straight and pure.

16 Who seek the LORD with all the heart,
I will not ev - er be a - shamed,
Who seek the LORD with all the heart,
I will not ev - er be a - shamed,
Who seek the LORD
I will not ev - er

21 Who seek the LORD with all the heart.
I will not ev - er be a - shamed.

3. When I respect Your commands and laws,
I can praise with upright heart.
When I have learned Your righteousness,
I'll keep Your statutes honestly.
Do not forsake Your servant now.

How Can a Young Man Cleanse His Way?

From Psalm 119:9-16

1. How can a young man cleanse his way? By heed - ing all Your Word.
2. Your ho - ly Word I hid a - way With - in my in - most heart,

So with all my heart I sought You out, Oh, do not let me wan - der off,
And I do this that I might not sin A - gainst You or a - gainst Your Word.

From Your com - mand - ments, just and true.
I bless You, O my LORD and God.

From Your com - mand - ments, just and true.
I bless You, O my LORD and God.

From Your bless com - mands
I bless You, God.

From Your com - mand - ments, just and true.
I bless You, O my LORD and God.

3. So I pray You teach me all Your laws.
With my lips I have declared
All the judgments that come from Your mouth.
I joy in what You testify,
I joy in what You testify.

4. As much as in all treasured wealth,
I contemplate Your laws,
And I pay respect unto Your ways.
I will delight in all Your law -
And I will not forget Your word.

My Soul Is Broken with Desire

From Psalm 119:17-24

1. Can this poor man a ser - vant be? Deal boun - ti - f'ly with me,
2. And if You o - pen both my eyes, I will be - hold Your law,

That I may live and keep Your Word, That I might walk and nev - er stray,
And see those won - drous things with - in. I am a stran - ger in this earth,

In all the bless - ings You poured out,
Hide Your com - mand - ments not from me.

In all the bless - ings You poured out,
Hide Your com - mand - ments not from me.

In all the bless - ings You poured out,
Hide Your com - mand - ments not from me.

In all the bless - ings You poured out,
Hide Your com - mand - ments not from me.

3. My soul is broken with desire,
And longs to see Your law.
You have rebuked the proud
and cursed,
Who stray and wander from
Your Word,
Who do not walk with clean intent.
4. Remove from me reproach and mirth,
For I have kept Your Word.
When princes laughed and spoke my name,
I suffered influential scorn,
And mediated on Your law.
5. Your testimonies speak to me,
They are my counselors.
I hear their sage and sound advice,
I hang on all their wisdom now,
And daily in them I delight.

Curriculum of Law

From Psalm 119:25-32

1. Down to the dust my soul bends down; Raise me with spoken Word.
2. Make me understand Your precepts now, Then I will talk of them.

I have declared Your Word and ways, You heard my sup-pling cry,
My soul now melts in heav-i-ness, Give strength to me as Your Word says,

Teach me Your statutes and Your law.
That I might stand, and stand up-right.
Teach me Your statutes and stand Your law.
That I might stand, and stand up-right.
Teach me Your law.
That I might stand,

Teach me Your law.
That I might stand,
Teach me Your law.
That I might stand,

3. Remove from me all lying words,
And grant Your gracious law.
For I have chosen truthful ways,
Your judgments I have set in place,
And laid them out so I can see.

4. Your testimonies are in hand,
I have held tight to them.
In Your commandments I will run,
In this curriculum of law,
You will enlarge my longing heart.

Turn Back My Eyes

From Psalm 119:33-40

1. Oh, teach me now, my gra - cious LORD, Teach me Your stat - ute law
2. Give me an un - der - stand - ing heart So that I keep Your law,

8
And I will keep it to the end, And I will walk with - in the way,
With all my heart I'll keep that law. Make me to go com - mand - ment - wise

16
Un - til in this jour - ney fi - n'ly ends,
For in Your law I taste de - light,
Un - til in this jour - ney fi - n'ly ends,
For in Your law I taste de - light,
Un - til in this jour - ney ends,
For in Your law

21
Un - til in this jour - ney fi - n'ly ends.
For in Your law I taste de - light.

3. Incline my heart to perfect law
And not to lust for things,
Keep me away from greediness,
Turn back my eyes from vanity,
And quicken me within Your way.

4. Establish law within me now,
Within Your servant here,
That I might now devote myself
Unto Your fear, and never stray.
Perfect Your perfect law in me.

5. Reproaches come: turn them away;
I fear and loathe them, Lord.
Your judgments, God, are very good.
Behold, I long to taste Your law,
So quicken me in righteousness.

So Raise Your Hands to His Commands

From Psalm 119:41-48

1. For - give me now, O LORD and God And let Your mer - cies come.
2. Then I will have an an - swer for The one who brings re - buke.

De - scend from Heav'n and save me here, Ac - cord - ing to Your mer - cy now,
My an - swer is my trust in You. My en - e - mies' re - proach - ing taunt

Ac - cord - ing to Your kind - ly of Word,
I an - swer with a heart of faith,
Ac - cord - ing to Your kind - ly of Word,
I an - swer with a heart of faith,
Ac - cord - ing to
I an - swer with

Ac - cord - ing to Your kind - ly of Word.
I an - swer with a heart of faith.

3. Take not the Word of truth from me,
That in my mouth it stays.
I hope in how You judge the world,
I keep Your law continually,
Forever and forever now.

4. And I will walk in liberty,
For in Your law I step.
I testify before great kings,
And I will never be ashamed,
Delighting in the law I love.

5. My hands are raised to
Your commands,
I love to honor them.
I mediate upon Your Word,
I love to think about Your law,
And so I taste it with delight.

Your Earth, O LORD, Is Full of Grace

From Psalm 119:57-64

1. Great GOD, You are my por - tion now, And I will keep Your words.
 2. I have con - sid - ered all my ways, And turned my feet to law.

I have en - treat - ed all Your grace, With all my heart and all my soul,
 I hur - ried as an ea - ger son, I did not lin - ger in the way,

Be mer - ci - ful and keep Your Word.
 And sought Your law to now o - bey,
 Be mer - ci - ful and keep Your Word.
 And sought Your law to now o - bey,
 Be mer - ci - ful
 And sought Your law

Be mer - ci - ful and keep Your Word.
 And sought Your law to now o - bey.

- | | | |
|---|--|---|
| 3. The bands of wicked men have robbed
My soul and life and heart.
But I have not forgotten You,
And I have not mislaid Your law.
I keep Your kindness faithfully. | 4. At midnight hour I gladly rise
And give my thanks to You.
Your righteous judgments bless me now,
And so I give You many thanks,
And praise You in the middle watch. | 5. I seek out men who fear Your name,
I walk with righteous men,
Who keep Your holy precepts right.
Your earth, O LORD, is full of grace;
Teach me Your blest and holy law. |

Their Foundry Is Deceit

From Psalm 119:65-72

1. I have been dealt with gra - cious - ly, Ac - cord - ing to Your Word.
 2. Be - fore af - flic - tion, and Your rod, I wan - dered off a - lone,

Teach me Your judgments, all are good, Give me Your knowledge freely now,
 But now, brought back, I keep Your Word, For You are kind, and do all good,

For Teach I me have Your faith in all stat - utes Your law.
 Teach me Your ho - ly stat - utes now.
 For Teach I me have Your faith in all stat - utes Your law.
 Teach me Your ho - ly stat - utes now.
 For Teach I me have Your faith in all stat - utes Your law.
 Teach me Your ho - ly stat - utes now.

For Teach I me have Your faith in all stat - utes Your law.
 Teach me Your ho - ly stat - utes now.

3. The proud have forged metallic lies,
 Their foundry is deceit.
 But I will keep Your precepts close.
 Their hearts are fat like cooking grease,
 But I delight in all Your laws.

4. For all my sufferings have been good,
 That I might learn Your law.
 Your spoken law is better now
 Than treasure heaped a thousand-fold,
 Than gold or silver piled up.

So Let Your Tender Mercies Come

From Psalm 119:73-80

1. Your hands have made and fashioned me, Give me a thought-ful mind,
2. I know, O LORD, You judge it right, In truth afflict-ing me.

8 So that I might learn Your commands. God-fear-ers al-ways wel-come me
I pray that all Your ten-der care Would be my com-fort and my stay,

Be - cause I hope in all Your Word.
Ac - cord - ing to Your Word to me.
16 Be - cause I hope in all Your Word. Your Word.
Ac - cord - ing to Your Word to me.
Be - cause I hope
Your Word to me.

Be - cause I hope in all Your Word.
Ac - cord - ing to Your Word to me.
21 Be - cause I hope in all Your Word.
Ac - cord - ing to Your Word to me.

3. So let Your tender mercies come
To me that I might live.
For Your commands are my delight.
So let the proud now be ashamed,
For they were bent without a cause.

4. But I will meditate on You
And on Your precepts true.
Let those who fear You turn to me,
And find me faithful in Your truth
So I will never be ashamed.

The Proud Have Dug Their Pits

From Psalm 119:81-88

1. Keep me from faint-ing now, O LORD, Through hope in Your pure Word.
 2. A dried-out wine-skin in the smoke Is what I have be - come.

My eyes are fail - ing for Your law. When will You come and com-fort me,
 But I do not for - get Your law De - spite long days with - out Your grace,

When will You an - swer all my cries?
 When will Your Word come strike them down?
 When will You an - swer come all strike my cries?
 When will Your Word come strike them down?
 When will my cries?
 When will Your Word

When will You an - swer come all my cries?
 When will Your Word come strike them down?

3. The proud have dug their fearsome pits,
 Which violate Your law.
 All Your commands are sure and true,
 They persecute me evilly.
 When will You rise up to my help?

4. They almost had their way with me,
 That I might be consumed.
 But I did not forsake Your laws,
 So bring me life in tenderness,
 Your spoken Word I always keep.

The Legalist Just Closes Doors

From Psalm 119:89-96

1. Let me right now for - ev - er know Your Word is firm on high,
 2. The earth o - beys as You de - cree, A faith - ful ser - vant here.

Your faith - ful - ness to all my line. You have es - tab - lished all the earth,
 Un - less Your law de - light - ed me, I would have per - ished mis - ra - bly,

And it a - bides as You have said,
 All my af - flic - tions drown - ing me,
 And it a - bides as You have said,
 All my af - flic - tions drown - ing me,
 And it a - bides
 All drown - ing me,

And it a - bides as You have said,
 All my af - flic - tions drown - ing me,
 And it a - bides as You have said,
 All my af - flic - tions drown - ing me.

3. I have resolved not to forget
 Your precepts and Your law.
 For through them You have brought me life,
 I am Your child, please save me now,
 For I have always chased Your law.

4. The wicked scheme to take me out,
 But I will keep Your law.
 The narrow-minded only trip,
 The legalist just closes doors,
 But Your law-road is great and wide.

Your Law Is Honey

From Psalm 119:97-104

1. My med - i - ta - tion is Your law! I love to con - tem - plate
2. More than my teach - ers I have learned; Your laws in - struct my heart.

All day the law You gave to us. Through Your commands You made me wise,
More than the an - cients I have learned Be - cause I keep Your ho - ly law

More than my en - e - mies can know,
And do not cling to van - i - ty,
More than my en - e - mies can know,
And do not cling to van - i - ty,
More than they know,
And do not cling

More than my en - e - mies can know.
And do not cling to van - i - ty.

3. I keep my feet from evil ways
That I might keep Your Word.
I have not left Your judgments off,
For You have taught Your law to me,
To one who walks within that Word.

4. I taste the sweetness of Your words!
Your law is honey, pure.
And through Your laws I learn the way
Because Your truth instructs me now
I come to hate the liar's path.

But I Refuse to Stray

From Psalm 119:105-112

1. Now here Your Word is like a lamp That guides my feet in truth.
2. This oath I took, that I will do What - ev - er You re - quire,

It lights the path be - fore me here, It shows the way through darkest night
That I will keep Your judgments right, That I will hold Your law in faith

That I may safe - ly come to You,
And nev - er let Your stat - utes go,
That I may safe - ly come to You,
And nev - er let Your stat - utes go,
That I may come
And nev - er let

That I may come
And nev - er let
That I may safe - ly come to You.
And nev - er let Your stat - utes go.

3. I am afflicted very much,
So bring back life, O LORD,
According to Your gracious Word.
Come now in grace, deliver me.
And show Your promises are true.

4. Accept, O LORD, my verbal praise,
A freewill offering.
Teach me Your truth, Your judgments right,
My soul remains in my right hand,
But I will not forget Your law.

5. The wicked lay their snares for me,
But I refuse to stray.
Your testimonies I receive,
They are the joy of all my heart.
I hold Your statutes to the end.

My Shield and Hiding Place

From Psalm 119:113-120

1. Oh, how I hate all van - i - ty Be - cause I love Your law.
2. De - part from me, you e - vil ones, For I will keep God's law.

8 You are my shield and hid - ing place; I hope and trust Your righteous Word,
Up - hold me here, ful - fill Your Word, That I might live and have no shame,

I And give all my - self to be strength and pow'r,
I give my - self to be all strength Your and ways,
And all my hope be strength and pow'r,
I And give all my - self
And all my hope

16 I And give my - self to be all strength and pow'r,
And all my hope be strength and pow'r.
21 I And give my - self to be all strength and pow'r.
And all my hope

3. Uphold me, Lord, and keep me safe,
As I respect Your law.
Tread down all those who break Your Word;
Destroy their lies in righteousness
And show how false they always are.

4. The wicked are like dross in gold;
You burn them clean away.
Because of this I love Your Word.
I tremble in my flesh for fear;
I fear Your Word, O holy God.

Why Do You Not Now Intervene?

From Psalm 119:121-128

1. Pre - cise my judg - ments all have been Ac - cord - ing to Your law.
 2. As - sure Your ser - vant in all good, Re - buke the proud who press.

 So do not now a - ban - don me, Do not al - low op - pres - sion here,
 My eyes are fail - ing for Your light, My eyes a - wait sal - va - tion's sun,

I trust for Your kind - ness prom - ised me,
 And for Your Word of right - eous - ness,
 I trust Your kind - ness prom - ised me,
 And for Your Word of right - eous - ness,
 You prom - ised me,
 And for Your Word

16
 You prom - ised me,
 And for Your Word
 I trust Your kind - ness prom - ised me.
 And for Your Word of right - eous - ness.

3. Deal with me now, Your servant here, In mercy handle me.
 Teach me Your statutes and Your words,
 I am Your servant, make me wise,
 That I might know Your righteous law.

4. The time has come, O LORD and God, For You to work and speak.
 They have negated all Your laws,
 They void Your righteous, holy Word,
 Why do You not now intervene?

5. I love Your law beyond all gold, The finest gold that is,
 Esteeming all Your precepts true,
 And honoring Your righteousness,
 I hate all liars in the way.

Warm Yellow Light Pours Wisdom Out

From Psalm 119:129-136

1. Quite won - der - ful are all Your words, And so my soul o - beys.
2. My mouth is dry, my throat a - thirst, I long for all Your laws.

8 The door-way of Your law is lit, Warm yel - low light pours wis - dom out
Look down on me, show mer - cy now, Just like You used to do of old

16 And so the sim - ple gath - er in,
To those who love Your ho - ly name,
And so the sim - ple gath - er in,
To those who love Your ho - ly name,
And Your gath - er in,
Your ho - ly name,

21 And so the sim - ple gath - er in.
To those who love Your ho - ly name.

3. Order my steps within Your Word;
Do not let evil reign.
Deliver me from tyrants' lies,
That I might walk within Your law,
And keep Your precepts pure and clean.

4. And let Your face shine down on me,
And teach Your holy law,
While rivers flow down both my cheeks
Because the wicked will not hear
And turn away from all Your words.

Though I Am Very Small

From Psalm 119:137-144

1. Ful-ly right-eous are Your judg-ments, LORD, And all Your ways up - right.
 2. I am con-sumed with faith - ful zeal. Your en - e - mies for - get

8
 Your tes - ti - mo - nies are a light, True right - eous - ness and faith - ful - ness
 The words re - vealed for us to keep, They throw them all be - hind their backs

16
 Are giv - en to us in Your law,
 And walk in blind - ed al - ley - ways,
 Are giv - en to us in Your law,
 And walk in blind - ed al - ley - ways,
 Are giv - en to us in Your law,
 And walk in blind - ed al - ley - ways,

21
 Are giv - en to us in Your law.
 And walk in blind - ed al - ley - ways.

3. Your Word is pure, completely pure
 And so Your servant loves
 What You have taught and said and shown.
 I am despised and very small,
 But still I do not now forget.

4. I see eternal righteousness
 And all Your law is truth.
 Though troubled anguish holds me here,
 Yet Your commands are my delight,
 So give me this and I shall live.

Before the Dawning Sun

From Psalm 119:145-152

1. So then I cried with all my heart, Hear me, O LORD, I pray.
2. I rose be - fore the dawn - ing sun, And I cried out in hope,

8
I will keep Your laws and stat - u - t - e - s pure, A - gain I cry, please save me now,
My eyes be - fore night watch - e - s here, That I might med - i - t - a - t - e in truth.

16
And I will keep Your ho - ly law,
Please hear in mer - cy all my cries,
And I will keep Your ho - ly law,
Please hear in mer - cy all my cries,
Your ho - ly law,
Please hear my cries,

21
Your ho - ly law,
Please hear my cries,
And I will keep Your ho - ly law.
Please hear in mer - cy all my cries.

3. O LORD, come now and quicken me
According to Your Word.
My enemies are drawing nigh,
They follow after mischief here,
They wander off, far from Your law.

4. But You are near, my LORD and God,
And Your commands are truth.
Concerning all Your words and laws,
I've known from ancient olden times
That You forever spoke them here.

Your Kindness Is Forever Sure

From Psalm 119:153-160

1. My lot is tor-ment, res - cue me, I hold tight to Your law.
2. Sal - va - tion is a dis - tant isle From all these wick - ed men.

God, plead my cause, de - liv - er me, And quick - en me, ful-fill Your Word,
They do not seek Your ho - ly law. Great are Your ten - der mer - cies, LORD,

Keep all in Your prom - is - es to me,
God, in Your judg - ments quick - en me,
Keep all in Your prom - is - es to me,
God, in Your judg - ments quick - en me,
Your God, prom - is - es
God, quick - en me,

Your prom - is - es
God, quick - en me,

Keep all Your prom - is - es to me.
God, in Your judg - ments quick - en me.

3. My persecutors multiply,
My enemies abound,
And still I do not drift away,
I do not drop Your holy Word,
I will not stray from Your good law.

4. I watched them as they broke
Your Word,
And it was grief to me.
Consider how I love Your law,
And quicken me to do so more,
According to Your tenderness.

5. Your Word is true eternally,
And all Your laws are right.
You will not let Your judgments lapse,
Your kindness is forever sure,
Your Word is true eternally.

You Know My Every Word and Step

From Psalm 119:161-168

1. Foul ven - om from the princ - es comes, With - out a cause they press.
 2. I loathe all lies, and those who speak With false and ly - ing lips.

Be - fore Your Word I stand in awe, I see, my heart is filled with joy,
 I praise You dai - ly sev - en times Be - cause Your judg - ments are all true,

As though I found great bat - tle spoil,
 And so I put my trust in them,
 As though I found great bat - - - tle in spoil,
 And so I put my trust in them,
 I found great spoil,
 I trust in them,

I found great spoil,
 I trust in them,
 As though I found great bat - tle in spoil.
 And so I put my trust in them.

3. Great peace have those who love Your law,
 And nothing shall offend.
 I hoped in truth for Your right arm
 To save me in the day of trial;
 I have obeyed Your holy Word.

4. My soul has kept Your holy law,
 And trusts Your holy Word.
 I love Your laws exceedingly.
 I keep Your precepts close to me,
 You know my every word and step.

Deliver Me As You Have Said

From Psalm 119:169-176

1. Why do You not stoop to my cry? Come near, O LORD, and hear.
2. My lips will utter all Your praise, When You have taught Your law.

Grant me the wis-dom of Your Word, And let my sup - pli - ca - tion come,
My tongue shall speak in grat - i - tude, For all Your words are righteousness,

De - liv - er me as You have said,
And all Your laws are just and true,
De - liv - er me as You have said, true,
And all Your laws are just and true,
De - liv - er me true,
Your laws are true,
De - liv - er me true,
Your laws are true,

De - liv - er me as You have said.
And all Your laws are just and true.

3. Extend Your hand, deliver me,
For I have loved Your law.
I long for Your salvation, LORD,
Your law is all my one delight,
Let my soul live before You now.

4. My living soul shall praise You, God,
So let Your judgments help.
I am astray, a wandering sheep,
Seek out and find Your servant now.
I never will forget Your law.
