

The Day Is Past and Gone

1. The day is past and gone; The eve - ning shades ap - pear.
2. We lay our gar - ments by, Up - on our beds to rest;

Oh, may we all re -
So death will soon dis -

Oh, may we all re - mem - ber well The So death will soon dis - robe us all Of

Oh, may we all re - mem - ber well The night of death draws
So death will soon dis - robe us all Of what we here pos -

Oh, may we all re - mem - ber well The night of death draws near, Oh,
So death will soon dis - robe us all Of what we here pos - sess, So mem - ber well The night of death draws near, The night of death draws near.

robe us all Of what we here pos - sess, Of what we here pos - sess.

night of death draws near, The night of death draws near.
what we here pos - sess, Of what we here pos - sess.

near, Oh, may we all re - mem - ber well The night of death draws near.
sess, So death will soon dis - robe us all Of what we here pos - sess.

may we all re - mem - ber well The night of death draws near.
death will soon dis - robe us all Of what we here pos - sess.

3. Lord, keep us safe this night;
Secure from all our fears;
May angels guard us while we sleep
Till morning light appears.

4. And when we early rise
And view th'unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize
And after glory run.

5. And when our days are past
And we from time remove,
Oh, may we in Thy bosom rest,
The bosom of Thy love.
